CHAPTER COMES TO CLOSE

As each school year draws to a close, we all bring to a close another chapter in the most important book of our lives. At the close of a college career, I find myself closing this book and reaching for my pen and pencil to begin a new one.

Before closing this chapter, however, I would like to take time and pause a moment to say "Thank you" to some VIP's. To each member of the Vulette staff, I would like to say, you are tops! To the entire student body, your many suggestions and support certainly were a tremendous help. To Mr. Tansil, the Vulette sponsor, well, we finally made it, thanks to your constant guidance.

To Joyce White, editor of The Vulette for 1961-62, and Hugh Cox, business manager for 1961-62, I want to say congratulations. May you hold the many fond memories at the end of next year that I now possess.

Believe it or not, for once I find myself at a loss for words. The only thing that I can think to say now is Aloha.

DEMOCRACY WINS IN ELECTION

The ASA election held May 9 was indeed a triumph for democracy here on this campus.

Never before has such a large number nor such a large percentage taken the time or interest in a campus activity. Better than 78 per cent, or 742 students, out of 941 expressed their interest by voting in the campus-wide election.

Many seemed puzzled about this sudden increase of interest. Perhaps the most plausible reason is the formation of Greek letter organizations. These groups all seem to emphasize the importance of civic duty and voting. In so doing, the entire campus seems to gain more enthusiasm.

Considering the large number of commuting students and those who had to be off campus during the day for various reasons, this was indeed a remarkable accomplishment.

Not to be forgotten in the excitement of the large vote turn-out are the newly elected officers of the ASA. Tommy Duncan, president, G. G. Crenshaw, vice-president and Laraine Fields, secretary. Each receives our sincere congratulations and good wishes for next year's activities.

Each of the other well-qualified candidates put up a good, clean campaign. Congratulations to each of you, too, in closing know that this campus has a "going to the sun" ASA or democratic rights.

YEAR MARKED BY MILESTONES

As this school year rapidly draws to a close, I find myself pondering over the past issues of this year's Vulette. Many milestones have been reached on this campus this year.

To begin with, a new high in enrollment was reached back in February with 1,124 students entering school here. With this tremendous increase in enrollment came the realization of two new degree programs, Business and Liberal Arts. Naturally, with this expansion of the degree program came the need for more and better teaching facilities. This has been met by the construction of the new Engineering-Science building and the plans being submitted for the new Physical Education Building.

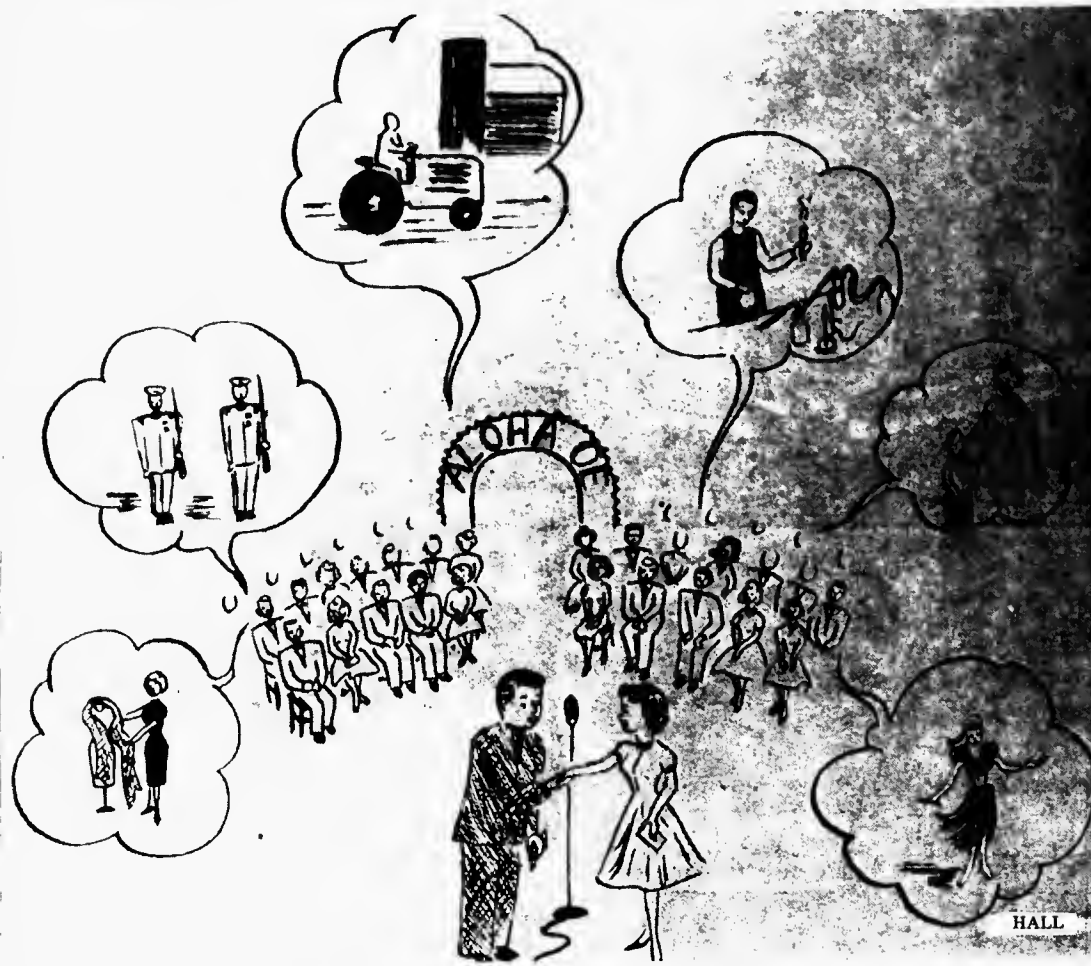

Beauty continues to encircle the campus and its activities. There was Jenny Thomas, Miss Tennessee 1960, who made a personal appearance here to help the seniors raise money for a basketball scholarship. Then along came our very own beauty queen, Ann Rowsey, who has since walked away with the title of Strawberry Festival Queen.

Perhaps the organization of Greek Letter groups for both the men and women has influenced the socials, elections and other campus endeavors as much as anything. These groups are not to be condemned, but instead, they should receive our sincere congratulations and support.

We are always ready to welcome visitors to our campus. This year, among other distinguished visitors, we have played host to a group of ladies from India who came to our campus to observe the teaching procedures used here. We all look forward to those prized visits that we receive from Dr. Andy Holt, such as the short stop he made on campus recently.

Not to be taken for granted is that fact that all racial barriers have been removed from this cam-

Another 'Evening To Remember'

And What Will You Be Doing This Summer?

BY BETTY GAY REED

In about two weeks everyone, except the squirrels, will be leaving UTMB to go home for the summer. Some of us will be back in a couple of weeks for summer school, some of us are going to work at various jobs from California to Pennsylvania, and a few more fortunate souls are going to loaf all summer.

The question "What are you going to do this summer?" brought many different answers. Here are a few of them:

Some of those "lucky" people who are coming back to school are Dianne Vest, Mary Nell Arnold, Janis "Tex" Teague, Linda Wheeling, Gayle Luttis, Sandra Hudson, Ruth Rowland ("I'm coming up here, I suppose," James Moore, Carmen Williams, Dianne Gunter ("I'm coming to school with Mike"), and Sam Spruill.

Johnny Townsend, "Good question!"

Jennie Lou Hall, "Packing Kellogg's Corn Flakes."

Ann Gresham, "Gatlinburg here I come! I'm going to a crafts school sponsored by the University of Tennessee."

Those more fortunate few that are going to loaf the summer away doing nothing but sleeping and eating are:

Sandra Cheatham, "Nothing!"

Randall Snipes, "Loaf and go swimming. What else is there to do in Memphis?"

Robert McCoy, "Sleep."

Billy Whitfield, "Swim."

Carmen Beaver, "I'm going to sit home."

Mary Cutlip, "I'm going to sleep all summer."

Judy Ray, "Loaf."

Betty McCollum, "Resting, I hope."

Jake Roudenbush, "As little as possible."

A few like Bobby Melton, Robert McGraw, Elaine Latham, Mert Scott ("I have no earthly idea"), and Larry Wade don't know what they are going to do. Naturally, they all give the same excuse: we plan to work, but we don't know what yet. They had better hurry up or all the jobs will be filled.

Peggy Wall, "I would like to go to New Orleans and sing in a night club."

Harriet Jenkins, "I'm going home, by George!"

Terry Huffstetter, "I'm going to work probably in Greenfield or probably on a farm; probably I'm going to work, but I don't know where."

We need to wish Will Gresham and Ray "Dago" Pollard the best of luck because they are leaving right after graduation for the Marines. Ralph Rutland and Darrell Smith at the last of the summer are going to the Marine P.L.C. camp. Good luck boys, I understand you will need it.

The different kinds of jobs range from carpenter—Bob Zachary—to working in the Factory Outlet Store—Linda Moore. A few of our students will be stationed in various parts of the country doing church work. Bob Galligan will be in the Dakotas, Harry Clift in Illinois, Lynda Webster in Virginia, Earl Mitchell in Florida, Ginger Turner in California, Brenda Hudson in Ohio, and Carlou Cooper in Ohio.

One of our foreign friends, Houshang Rassekh, said, "I am just going to take off and see what I can find." Happy hunting, Houshang, and come back to see us some time.

I sure hope all the 4-H'ers can swim because I have just learned some of the life guards: David Stroud, Sally Roberts at UTMB, and Kent Crenshaw in Shelby County.

Barbara Peeler, "Florida or bust; sun or die."

Mary Kay Hall, "I am going to work in the office of the State Insane Asylum in Little Rock, Ark."

David Keschull, "I'm going to be cutting grass. I am sure David would appreciate it if all the people in Memphis who have big lawns with lots of weeds, would call him."

If any of you "speed demons" get in trouble in Memphis, just look up Judy Forrester who will be working at the court house.

Our highways will never have better care than this summer with Jerry Lee, Hyatt Williams, and Charlie Grooms taking care of them.

Pat Beacham, "I'm going to work in a factory in Memphis, but I don't want to cut cotton picking straps." (Straps for cotton picking bags; I mean, bags for cotton picking straps; I mean, strips for bags you put the picked cotton in.)

It seems Memphis is the place to go to get a job. Robert Wildsmith, Jerry Smith, Jane Jolley, and Carolyn Burch are among the many converging on Memphis.

WATCH OUT! Bye Bobby! Bobby Duck is going to Auburn next year to graduate school, and he is working there this summer. We would also like to say "Good-bye" to Melvin Humphreys and Charles Lee Duncan who are going to graduate school.

Sue Patterson, "After I get through going all the places I'm going, I'm going to stay at home."

Bob Stephens, "I am going to work at a bank in Union City."

Johnny Madden is going to be another big wheel in the money department. He is going to work at the Detroit Finance Company.

Gene Treadway, star of Romeo and Juliet, said he was going to work in a funeral home.

Lynda Harris, "Who me?" (a big laugh)

If any of you are going to be in Florida swimming, I may see you; or if you plan to go mountain climbing in Colorado, I may see you. I plan to work and play, and if that isn't a combination, I don't know what is.

Miss Freeman is elected to office

Miss Alice Clare Freeman was elected 2nd vice-president of the Tennessee Home Economics Association, College Club section at the recent THEA convention in Memphis. She will serve in this capacity for the next year.

Rassekhs Saying Goodbye UTMB

BY ELAINE FREEMAN

Mimi and Houshang Rassekhs expressed a desire this week to this writer to say "thank you" to all UTMB students and teachers.

In an interview yesterday they expressed their appreciation for the kindness and hospitality which has been shown to them during the two years they have been in residence at UT Martin.

Both Mimi and Houshang expressed a keen desire to continue their studies at UTMB but neither of them is able to go further here in his chosen curriculum.

"I have enjoyed these past two years here and I will never forget all my friends at UTMB," said Mimi. Houshang nodded his agreement to these sentiments.

Everyone on campus has learned to love both Mimi and Houshang, and I am sure that each of us would like to wish them much luck, success and happiness when they continue their studies at another university.

Survey Tells Social Habits Of Students

BY JENNIE LOU HALL

The recent student questionnaire on extracurricular activities brought to light many interesting ideas and comments of UTMB students, according to Henry Allison, chairman of the Evaluation Committee.

There was an almost unanimous desire expressed for a student union building on our campus. Some participants even suggested the building arrangements and furnishings. It was generally expressed by most students that there are just not enough facilities to fill this social need on our campus.

Most students also agreed that recreational needs cannot be met adequately by the facilities of our campus (Wagon Wheel, Rebel Room, Athletic areas). Suggestions for a check-out system for athletic equipment on weekend days were filed.

Informal socials took first place in student preference, with social dances following in second place. Outdoor activities were favored for warm weather outings.

The average UTMB student participates actively in three clubs or organizations, according to the poll. However, some students recorded no clubs, while others recorded as many as five or six. In almost all cases, the students said that working in campus organizations does not adversely affect their scholastic standing.

There was some disagreement, however, over whether or not existing organizations satisfy the needs of the students.

A majority agreed that the students do have an adequate voice in the selection and supervision of social activities. Sponsors were credited with taking an active part in the development of club projects.

Concerning participation in chorus or drama and other groups used to publicize UTMB, most opinions were that these activities do not interfere greatly with academic progress. But it was the general opinion of the students that a person on scholastic probation should be restricted in organizational memberships.

A half-and-half vote was expressed on whether or not extracurricular activities work a financial hardship on the student. But an unanimous agreement was voiced that these activities contribute to the development of the students.

Weave Your Own Is H.E. 441 Motto

BY MELBA WHITESIDES

"Weave Your Own" is the latest word among the members of the Home Ec 441 class.

These girls have found a new "Do-It-Yourself-Kit" which amazingly allows thread to be woven into cloth. Of course, weaving is as old as man who first began to weave baskets from weeds and rushes. However, for most of these Home Economics majors, it is a new experience.

If you hear someone say "Think I'll go over and weave a dab", you will know they are on their way to the Home Economics Building. This quarter the looms were moved in a vacant classroom upstairs and set up ready for use. At present, there are four large looms and two small hand looms.

This room upstairs has come to be sort of a "hideaway" out of the everyday traffic where basic weaving lessons are given by Miss Van Denburg, associate professor of related art. Under her instruction, the girls have learned how to prepare thread for weaving, thread the loom and then treadle the loom to obtain a finished product. They have learned the standard loom tie-ups and several basic weaving patterns.

They have also learned the ache and drudgery of those first weavers long ago who turned out all their cloth by hand. They have learned to rethread 195 threads, one at a time, if the first threading is incorrect then maybe even rethread a third and fourth time. They have learned what happens when a thread breaks, when treadles come untied and when the pattern is treadled wrong.

"Pick a Bail of cotton, pick a bail Aday". However, for these girls the saying may be, "Weave a yard of cloth, weave a yard a quarter". Of course, for experienced weavers such as those today in the East Tennessee mountains, a yard of cloth is turned out much quicker. Many countries still do the majority of their weaving by hand.

Speaker Has Rich Experiences In Religion - Science

Dr. George K. Schweitzer, who is to deliver the commencement address at U-T Martin Branch graduation, is a native of Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and is at present associate professor of chemistry at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Dr. Schweitzer's duties include teaching and directing research in the field of nuclear chemistry both at U-T Knoxville and in the university divisions maintained at Oak Ridge. His research activities include his filling the position of research radiochemist with the U-T Atomic Energy Commission Agricultural Research program. He is also radiological warfare chief for Tennessee civil defense and director of health physics for the Nuclear Service Laboratory.

The holder of a doctor of philosophy degree in nuclear chemistry from the University of Illinois, Dr. Schweitzer recently passed his preliminary examinations for the doctor of philosophy degree in religion at New York University and at present is working on his thesis, the subject of which is "The Hebrew-Christian Faith and the Origins of Modern Science."

He holds the master of arts in religion degree earned at Columbia University and Union Theological Seminary and the master of science degree in nuclear chemistry from the University of Illinois.

The commencement speaker is author of over fifty papers dealing with radioactive materials, a textbook dealing with radioactive tracer techniques and a number of papers dealing with investigation in the spheres of science, philosophy and religion.

Among the organizations of which he is a member are Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, Phi Lambda Upsilon, the American Chemical Society, the History of Science Society and the Health Physics Society.

A member of the First Baptist Church of Knoxville, Dr. Schweitzer is active as lecturer to the young people's Sunday school seminars in religion, a Sunday morning program in the church which attracts about 200 college students each Sunday. He has also served for over ten years as faculty advisor for the Baptist Student Unions of the area.

His special interests are in natural science and its relation to Christian faith.

Dr. Schweitzer is married and has three children. His hobbies are swimming, motion picture photography and music.

Martha Taylor weaves a variation of the honeysuckle design in the piece of cloth on the loom in the advanced home furnishing lab in the Home Economics Building.

Ann Rowsey Will Seek New Honors

Ann Rowsey, UTMB's 1961 campus beauty queen, will represent the Martin Branch this summer in the Miss Tennessee pageant in Jackson.

The three night event will take place July 15. Each contestant will appear in evening dresses, bathing suits, and will display some form of talent.

Ann may also possibly be in the "Catfish Derby" later this summer in Savannah. A $100 award is given to the winner of this contest.

Recently Ann won the title of "Queen of the Strawberry Festival" at Humboldt. She was selected as queen over 64 other contestants.

"This night and the day also was really an enjoyable experience for me," Ann said.

Ann, along with Letty Taylor, Mary Arnold, and Jennie Lou Hall, rode in the parade on the float built by the ASA in the morning. At noon Ann attended a luncheon at the War Memorial Building. She said, "We had lots of things to eat including strawberries." Prior to the evening beauty revue, she attended a buffet supper for all the beauty review contestants.

Ann says her plans for the summer are indefinite at the present. Much of her time, however, will be taken up in preparing for the Miss Tennessee pageant and other beauty revues in which she may appear.

Twenty-five Get Awards In Music

Twenty-five students have received special awards from the Music Department, Miss Harriet Fulton announced today.

Receiving pins for chorus work during the last two years were Betsy Barton, Tom Duncanson, Janice Grissom, Patti Goff, Bob Hurt, Helen Kidwell, Taylor Johnston, Ruth Ann Robinson, Nelson Shankle, Carolyn Firgin and Peggy Wall.

Awarded sweaters for work in the band during the past two years were Charles T. Edwards, Ann Gresham, John D. Townsend and Janet McCombs.

Awarded letters for one year of band work were James Floyd, James Fortner, William Fry, Glenn Fuller, William Grant, Clarence Lee, John Mullins, Ronald Stottlemyer, Joe Writeman and Robert K. Stewart.

APOs To Give Old Chinese Play

The ancient Chinese play "Lute Song" will be the production of Vanguard Theater and presented by Alpha Psi Omega May 23 and 24 in the Music-Drama Building.

The ancient Chinese love story was written by Kao-Tong-Kia and adapted by Mao-Taou to be presented at the Imperial Court of Peking in 1404. The play was made classical through its constant stage presentation since that time.

This warm love story will be presented in the ancient Oriental tradition. The main characters are Tehao-ou-Ni-Nian played by Mrs. Ann Brinley, Tsal-Yong played by Jerry Coates, Princess Nieou-Chi played by Linda Collier, and Prince Nieou played by Maurice Bugg. A number of supporting and extra roles complete the cast. These will be filled by Charlotte Haynes, Pam Prince, Nancy Ragan, Patti Cobb, Willis Bennett, James Carey, Pam Cox, and Bob Hurt.

The play will begin at 8:00 p.m. Admission will be fifty cents for students and one dollar for adults.

Piano Students To Give Recital, May 22nd

Alice Clare Freeman and Vivien Gore will be presented by the UTMB Music Department in a piano recital at the Music-Drama Building May 22 at 8 p.m.

They will play two modern American two-piano compositions: Suite from "Billy the Kid" by Copland and "Jamaican Rhumba" by Benjamin George Shankle and Keith Johnson will assist with percussion.

Solo performances by Miss Freeman will include "Prelude and Fugue in B-flat Minor" by Bach, Allegro from "Pastoral", sonata by Beethoven, "Etude in A-flat" by Chopin and "Arabesque" by Schumann.

Miss Gore will play for her solo "Etude in E Major" by Chopin, "Prelude in G Minor" by Rachmaninoff, and "Three Fantastic Danes" by Schostakovieb. The student body and the general public are invited. No admission will be charged.

Officer Confers With AGR Colony

Dr. Maynard Coe, extension chairman of Alpha Gamma Rho national fraternity, was on campus to confer with the local Alpha Gamma Rho colony Tuesday, May 16.

Dr. Coe, who is also a director of the national safety council, discussed a number of problems confronting the Martin colony. Means of obtaining a chapter house occupied much of the discussion.

Unlike in many fraternities Alpha Gamma Rho requires its colonies to live in and operate a house for at least a semester before they become a part of the national organization.

"This has been one of our major problems," said Larry Wade, president of the colony. "Mr. Coe reacted favorably to our organization and status on campus, and with help from the national fraternity we hope to obtain a house in the near future."

Larry mentioned a number of activities that have kept AGR members busy this quarter. The annual Pink Rose dinner - dance, training a pledge class and planning toward a house have been major activities. "Also, we can't why the blue suit with the gold bars?

You're needed... just as your father and grandfather were. It's an obligation that a lot of qualified college men have to meet... that of serving your country, when and where you are needed.

And the Air Force needs college-trained men as officers. This is caused by the rapidly expanding technology that goes with hypersonic air and space flight. Your four years of college have equipped you to handle complex jobs. You have the potential to profit from advanced training... then put it to work.

There are several ways to become an officer. First there is Air Force ROTC. Another program, relatively new, is Officer Training School. Here the Air Force commissions certain college graduates, both men and women, after three months' training. The navigator training program enables you to win a flying rating and a commission. And, of course, there's the Air Force Academy.

An Air Force officer's starting salary averages out to about what you could expect as a civilian. First there's your base pay. Then add on such things as tax-free rations and quarters allowances, free medical and dental care, retirement provision, perhaps flight pay, and 30 days' vacation per year. It comes to an attractive figure. One thing more. As an officer, you will become eligible for the Air Force Institute of Technology. While on active duty many officers will win graduate degrees at Air Force expense.

Why not contact your local Air Force Recruiter. Or write to Officer Career Information, Dept. SC15, Box 7608, Washington 4, D.C., if you want further information about the navigator training or Officer Training School programs.

UTMB's track team placed fourth in the Volunteer State Athletic Conference meet Saturday in Clarksville when 14 medals.

Track coach Ross Elder listed four members of his team that were outstanding. Bill Johnson, 2nd in 220-yard dash; Bob Zachary, 2nd in 100-yard dash and 3rd in the discus throw; Jim Love, 2nd in pole vault and 3rd in shot put; Joe Hudson, 3rd in pole vault, tied 3rd in high jump, and tied 4th in broad jump.

UTMB's team of six boys amassed 26 points against other teams with organized teams of 20. The Vols placed 2nd and 3rd in the pole vault without having the equipment necessary to train with. One member participated barefooted because there were no track shoes to fit him.

Ag Round-up Bests Rain With Contest In Barn

Despite hard rains the first annual UTMB Round-Up was held inside the barn May 8.

The cattle show in both divisions — dairy and beef — were judged on fitting and showmanship.

In the beef division the winners were James Brittingham and Robert Bagwell, showmanship.

The winners of the dairy show were Vivien Gorc, fitting, and Ronnie Riley, showmanship.

The judges for the shows were Tom McCutcheon and Jim Workman. They judged on the appearance of the cow, as well as how well the animals were trained.

Jerry Lee, president of the Ag Club, said this was to become an annual event, and for the girls not to worry because the milking contest would be held next year.

The event was co-sponsored by the Ag Club and Alpha Gamma Rho.

The annual chicken barbecue and hay ride was held Friday night, May 5.

The Ag Club held its regular meeting Monday, May 1. President Jerry Lee presented Willard Burkhead, agriculture teacher at Ridgely High School, and his parliamentary procedure team. These high school students gave a demonstration of parliamentary law.

Meeks Will Give Informal Party

Dean and Mrs. Paul Meek will give an informal party for seniors Tuesday afternoon, May 30, at 4 o'clock in Room 112 of the Administration Building.

Other invited guests will be heads of degree granting departments and their wives and senior class sponsors.

The party will be held immediately following commencement rehearsal activities which are to begin earlier in the afternoon.

The elite of the ROTC battalion group at UTMB was presented various awards during a special unit formation on Thursday.

Cadet Lt. Col. David Holladay and Cadet Maurice Carroll were presented the Superior Cadet award. Holladay, a sophomore, and Carroll, a freshman, won the awards for leadership, discipline, courtesy, and excellent grades in military and academic subjects. The Martin Rotary Club awarded trophies to parallel the superior cadet award.

JOE HUDSON

Hudson Will Be '61-62 BSU Head

Joe Hudson, a senior from Morris Chapel has been elected president of the Baptist Student Union for 1961-62.

Other officers elected were Ginger Turner, vice-president; Mary Alice Smith, enlistment; Letty Taylor, publicity; Sue Patterson, devotion; Don Speight, stewardship; Harry Cliff, missions; Bob Galligan and Carlton Cooper, evangelism; Glen Mitchell, Student Center; Barbara Peal and Carolyn Askew, secretaries; Linda Warren, YWA representative; Mary Kay Hall, social; Pattie Alexander, Laraine Fields, Ray Martin, and Brenda Hudson, church representatives from First and Central.

These officers were installed March 19, and have been serving in their various capacities all of this quarter so that they will be acquainted with their jobs for next year.

Six members of the council will serve as student summer missionaries this summer. Carlton Cooper, Brenda Hudson, Harry Cliff, Ginger Turner, Bob Galligan and Glen Mitchell will all be working in different parts of the country.

Twenty-three members attended State BSU Retreat April 24-26 at Camp Linden near Linden, Tennessee. Twelve people from the group took part in the program. Plans are being made by several to attend Student Week at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly at Ridgecrest, North Carolina, from June 8 to June 15.

Twelve Initiated Into Chi Omega

Twelve women of the Spring Quarter pledge class have been initiated as members of the Xi Zeta chapter of Chi Omega Fraternity.

The following new members were initiated May 6 at the Chi Omega Lodge: Pattie Sue Alexander, Carolyn Sue Askew, Cile Bramham, Janice Harrison, Edie James, Carol Melton, Kathy Pratt, Ann Rowsey, Mary Beth Shaw, Karen Webb, Linda Wheeling, and Pam Wilsford.

Following the initiation a banquet was given at the T-Room honoring the new members.

Sunday afternoon the Xi Zeta chapter held Open House at the Lodge for the Chi Omega members and their parents.

Seniors - Faculty To Hold Practice

Rehearsal of graduation exercises for seniors and faculty members will be held Tuesday, May 30, at 3 p.m., Dr. Leon Lantz, chairman of the processions committee, has announced.

Members of the faculty have been instructed to assemble in Room 203 of the Administration Building. The seniors will meet in Room 223 of the Administration Building.

Dr. Lantz said that if the weather is unfavorable on Tuesday, the rehearsal will be postponed until 5 p.m. Wednesday, May 31.
